

NDC General Manager, Ma. Lourdes F. Rebueno, carries with her 32 years experience in management, corporate finance, controllership, corporate planning, privatization of government corporations, project evaluation and financing, auditing, organizational restructuring, human resources development and public private partnerships

She was responsible for the following major accomplishments in the National Development Company (NDC):

- Managed the turn-around of the financial performance of the NDC and has overseen the 30 companies under the NDC umbrella
- Led, in the early years of the government's privatization program, the NDC Privatization Team in raising P10.0 Billion from privatization proceeds of NDC subsidiaries/affiliates
- Secured both local and foreign financing/refinancing for NDC projects and subsidiaries/affiliates
- Promoted investments in the areas of road infrastructure, alternative fuel, cheaper medicine, increased agriculture production, among others
- Concluded lease negotiations with multinational companies that are leasing properties majority-owned by NDC resulting in higher rental revenues
- Balance Sheet restructuring and streamlining of company operations and subsidiaries

Ms. Rebueno has a Masters Degree in Business Administration from the University of the Philippines where she also took her Bachelor of Science in Business Administration and Accountancy. She attended training in International Program on Reform and Privatization of Public Enterprises in Developing Countries at Harvard University, Boston, Massachusetts.

She is a Certified Public Accountant, a Government Career Executive Service Officer I (CESO I) and ranked number 1 in the Management Aptitude Test Battery conducted by the Philippines' Career Executive Service Board for career officers.
